```
Match the video feed dimensions
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  // 2) # Adjust the divisor as needed for a smoother zoom = detector.findDistance(hand1["center"], hand2["center"], img)
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     with the original image using the mask
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 # Read an image for overlay and resize it to match the video feed {\sf img1_resized} = {\sf img1_resized}[:{\sf img.shape}[0], :{\sf img.shape}[1]]
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               cv2.imread(r"C:\Users\rkssp\Desktop\bharathi.jpg") cv2.resize(img1, (img.shape[1], img.shape[0])) # //

                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      1, img1_resized, 0.5, 0)
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  # Adjust the scaling factor based on the distance
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    # Resize the overlay image while preserving color
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    img1_resized = cv2.resize(img1, (newW, newH))
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    the same channels
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   between the hands
              from cvzone.HandTrackingModule import HandDetector Zooming", img)
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    w1 + scale == ord('q'):
                                                                                                                                               detector = HandDetector(detectionCon=0.7)
                                                                                                                                                                                                                hands, img = detector.findHands(img)
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     # Break the loop if 'q' is pressed = cv2.addWeighted(img,
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    # Ensure both images have # Blend the resized image
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     cv2.imshow("Hand Tracking and # Calculate the distance
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   newH, newW = h1 + scale, = img1.shape
                                                                                                                                                                                                = cap.read()
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      if cv2.waitKey(1) & 0xFF scale = int((length
                                                                                                                               # Initialize Hand Detector
                                                              cap = cv2.VideoCapture(0)
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      # Display the result
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 hand1 = hands[0]
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 = hands[1]
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  if len(hands) == 2:
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         I
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        -
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   h1, w1, _
                                              # Open the camera
                                                                                                                                                                                              success, img cap.set(3, 1280)
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 length,
                                                                                              cap.set(4, 720)
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                hand2
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        break img 12 while True:
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 img1 =
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  П
1 import cv2
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  img1
                                                                                                                                               10
                                             5
                                                                              9 7 8
                                                                                                                                                                                              13
14
15
16
17
17
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               19
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                20
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                39
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    40
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   43
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                21
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                22
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    41
42
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      77
                                                                                                                               6
```

Page 1 of 2